Downstream signaling pathways activated by the IGF−1 receptor cascade can lead to the activation of transcription factors, such as Akt (AKT kinase or serine/ threonine − specific protein kinase ) and ERK(extracellular signal regulated kinase ), which regulate the expression of genes involved in cell cycle progression, protein synthesis, and apoptosis.

Summarized by © lakhasly.com