

Content is the knowledge , information , experience , expertise , opinions , ideas , attitudes and expectations that each individual brings to a meeting .This includes the feelings , attitudes and expectations the participants which have a direct bearing on co operation listening , participation and trust .