Hybrid Cloud problem: The following issues or challenges generally drive the requirement to integrate infrastructure cloud services from external suppliers into existing environments: 1–Existing hardware, software, or worker's resources cannot meet the demand for brand spanking new technical capabilities and/or services inside the atmosphere.