Patient preparation: The patient is required to fast for a certain period of time before the test.Blood collection: using a needle to puncture a vein, The blood is drawn into a blood collection tube containing anticoagulant to prevent clotting.

Summarized by © lakhasly.com