

Chapter 14 Pip reveals the shame he feels about his home because Miss Havisham and Estella would view it as inferior. This sense of shame about something he once appreciated makes Pip miserable.