

"Hello, my name is Musifa. I have a strong background in time management and have been actively engaging in critical thinking exercises to enhance my problem-solving skills. I am currently exploring the importance of critical thinking in everyday life and learning about empathy, punctuality, respect, and bias through various vocabulary matching tasks. I am confident in writing LinkedIn profiles and managing my time effectively, and I am working on improving my presentation skills. I am also becoming familiar with Arabic text, which is an exciting new challenge for me. I believe these experiences and skills make me a strong candidate for the position."
