

To confirm a phobia, a healthcare professional typically conducts a thorough assessment that includes:

1. Diagnostic criteria: Using the DSM-5 (Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders) criteria, which requires that fear or anxiety be persistent (lasting at least six months), excessive, and cause significant distress or impairment in daily functioning.2.3.