

The declaration must include a complete inventory of all real estate and movable assets owned by the public employee and their minor children, whether located in Algeria or abroad, including cash holdings.