

"Close. Like we're all just close. And it doesn't matter where people are from, what you believe, we're just close," says the assistant coach. "So you and some of them that left this past year, you guys are really tight. But it also wouldn't be anything to see you guys hanging out with Sydney [Affolter], or like hanging out with Hannah [Stuelke] or Caitlin hanging out with Kylie. So I think there's just mutual respect and actual friendship." The Hawkeye connection is so strong that we all got to see Gabbie Marshall and Jada Gyamfi attend the 2024 WNBA Draft event. "When I came into coaching, I would always hear this thing like, 'We don't need you to be friends, we just need you to be good teammates on the floor,'" Harmon tells Gyamfi.