

3.Connectivity: Data centers are typically connected to multiple internet service providers (ISPs) and network backbones to ensure reliable and high-speed connectivity.