

Caitlin Clark's mother and brother "furious" with decision to keep Indiana Fever star out of Olympics. Caitlin Clark family has been left "furious" at the decision by Team USA to snub her from the 2024 Olympics team that will head to Paris, France, to try to claim a gold medal at the world's most famous sports event. "Rant incoming. – leaving Caitlin Clark off the women's Olympic team is the dumbest shit I've ever heard", was one post Colin liked and was put online by the founder of Barstool Sports. The latter of whom was spotted venting his frustrations on X.com, formerly Twitter, by way of liking several comments slamming the decision.