

In summary. criminal law is integral to the enforcement of unilateral administrative acts as it establishes a legal basis for penalizing violations thereby promoting compliance and protecting the public interest