

A teacher is responsible for educating students by imparting knowledge, skills, and values in a variety of subjects. Their duties include planning lessons, explaining concepts, assigning and grading work, and helping students understand the material. Teachers also encourage critical thinking, problem-solving, and personal growth.