

National Day, celebrated on December 2, commemorates the founding of the United Arab Emirates (UAE) in 1971. The day celebrates the unification of seven emirates—Abu Dhabi, Dubai, Sharjah, Ajman, Umm Al-Quwain, Fujairah, and Ras Al Khaimah—under one federal government. This historic agreement was fueled by the desire for collaboration and shared progress among the emirates. National Day is marked by grand festivities, including parades, fireworks, and cultural events, showcasing the UAE's rich heritage and achievements. It serves as a day of pride and reflection for Emiratis, highlighting their unity and the country's remarkable development since its formation.
