

Work Only through work, it is that you can achieve success in life. We should work to improve our society and environment. Doing our work with love would give us a positive outlook on life. All type of work is respectable.