

The Kingdom is seeking to achieve many achievements, and among the achievements of its strategic plans for Vision 2030, which is the development that will take place in various fields, whether economic, political and educational, and which will be a reason for reconstruction.