

(Join us in challenging the norms and crossing past the ordinary) The hotel's design is inspired by The Line City in NEOM, providing three different levels that express the three geographical regions through which The Line City passes: mountains, seas, and desert.