

Cities are bigger than villages or towns. In villages or small towns, the neighborhoods are close. Most often, you use means of transportation. Distances are far.