

TELE-ICU Smart Intensive Care Center: This center functions without requiring direct patient contact by monitoring and supervising clinical cases and patient data. Additionally, via artificial intelligence, the treating physician alerts the patient to probable issues depending on the outcomes and possible dangers displayed by the center's devices. The availability of round-the-clock supervising specialists and audio-visual artificial intelligence technologies improve communication between the main command center and the intensive care unit.