

Dr. Mohamed is a hardworking, dedicated ophthalmologist with excellent interpersonal skills, well-liked by colleagues and patients. He readily accepts direction, embraces new ideas, and performs effectively under pressure. His skills encompass academic and practical supervision, research program development, treatment evaluation, and effective communication. Dr. Mohamed possesses strong diagnostic and treatment skills, maintains professional conduct, and actively pursues continuing education, sharing his knowledge enthusiastically. He's described as smart, confident, humble, and collaborative, actively participating in academic activities and consistently updating his knowledge of ophthalmology.