

Definition: A portfolio is a collection of projects and programs, often with differing objectives, managed together to achieve strategic business goals. For instance, Etihad's portfolio might prioritize sustainability initiatives alongside customer loyalty programs and operational efficiency projects to maximize overall business value.