

Friendship is a strong bond that unites individuals. It can be said that friendship is a treasure that we preserve throughout our lives.