This report will cover the purpose of IT support in each company, how safe working practices are followed, the roles and tools used to manage their IT systems, and a comparison of the two companies' approaches. Additionally, I will evaluate how each company's IT support could be improved.