

The award addresses different themes each year, and the works of the participants are evaluated by a high-level jury, including experts from Egypt and the world. It also aims to encourage, honor and appreciate Egyptian architects.