

With the current changing business environment, globalisation, human rights awareness and technological dynamism, effective human resource management have become one of the most essential and critical tools of success for most organisations. Motivational tools and techniques employed by Saudi Aramco Company.