

Smooth receipt of new assignment, and job roll in non-bulk section from the previous representative and efficient assignment management within just two weeks with minimal errors and problems despite the personal circumstances. Positive effective communication with stakeholder wither internally or externally as result to continue manage the activates successfully. enhance the planer to share monthly allocation before 25 of end of month and that led to receive the order confirmation from sale typically before 25 of months as well.