

Health insurance also includes the working wife in this case, her male children up to the age of twenty-five years, and unmarried daughters.