

A PR graduate can also find a career as a social media manager in the Ministry of Tourism. The main role is to manage the website in the Ministry of Tourism that presents the various activities of the Ministry and publish them on the website. For instance, there are a lot of tourist sites in Oman that are displayed on the site and therefore the public relations officer must promote these sites, which in turn attract tourists. (Anonymous, n.d.).