

Customer Complaints can be defined as a report from a consumer about a problem with a product or service.