Secure network design ● Embeds core protections and improvements into an IT infrastructure before it is implemented ● Design comes from planning ● Planning comes from understanding of business needs, user behavior, and network vulnerabilities Common security goals ● Confidentiality, integrity, availability, privacy, authentication, authorization, nonrepudiation, and accounting