

4– If he resides outside the country continuously and without justification for a period exceeding four years. If a person's nationality is withdrawn, it may subsequently be withdrawn from his wife and minor children.