Tariq Al-Ali is a great Kuwaiti artist whose artistic career began on stage, becoming one of the most prominent and important theatrical actors in the Gulf and the Arab world. He was famous for his comedic roles, in which he always made sure to contain a purposeful message to shed light on various social problems.