Abu Abbas's journey from a regular employee to a successful entrepreneur is a testament to his vision and adaptability. As word spread about the high standards at ELC, enrollment surged, further solidifying its reputation as a premier educational institution in Bahrain. By carefully selecting top educators from renowned universities, he ensured that students received not just knowledge, but also mentorship and guidance.

Summarized by © lakhasly.com