

Go green is a step to conserve our nature and lead eco-friendly life. Few simple steps include reducing our waste, reusing a product before recycling it, planting more trees, switching off lights, and many more steps.