

Designed to furnish hospitality settings with style and elegance, Lounge Seymour offers restrained proportions and curves that express a feeling of intimacy and discretion. Soft shapes, diminished proportions and sinuous lines – the Lounge Seymour system was designed specifically for furnishing hospitality settings where relaxation and sociability speak the language of refined elegance. The variety of available elements and pairing with Catlin and Elliott coffee tables allow for refreshing, casual, open compositions.