

To make suture fixation easier, the C-shaped haptics feature eyelets in the middle of them. With just one session, this implant provides both iris reconstruction and optical correction