

- Provide high quality customer service in any specific area to all passengers
- Providing any additional service as requested by the traveler and processing it as necessary
- Responding to travelers' inquiries and providing assistance as much as possible
- Speed and accuracy when transmitting information or responding to customers inquiries