

In the deep blue sea, there was a great king who lived with his six daughters and his mother in his great kingdom. He used to love his daughters very much, but his youngest daughter "Eva" was her love in his heart that surpassed the love of her sisters. One day they all celebrated the birth of his fifth daughter, Marina, who is growing up, Eva. They all congratulated her from their hearts and wished her a long life, and with this celebration she was eighteen years old in which she was allowed to go to the surface of the water and enjoy the golden sunlight and the fresh air. The princess was very pleased with the new authority granted to her by her father, but he also gave her some laws which stipulate: "Never get close to the human world, because the world of the sea is completely different from the human world, and it is absolutely forbidden to approach each other from the world of the other," he warned her. At this moment, the little princess "Eva" complained, as she desperately wanted to go with her sister to the surface of the sea, but her father did not authorize her according to their own rules and laws, and he promised her that at the age of eighteen he would authorize her to go; By his decision to prevent her, she believed that he did not love her, but her grandmother and her brothers convinced her that he had done what he had done out of fear for her, and that there was only one year left and her age would be eighteen. The little princess "Eva" was happy, and she longed for the end of the year so that she could fulfill her dream, "Eva" was described as super beauty, and what made her beauty more beautiful was that she was kind-hearted with all the sea creatures, so everyone loved her deeply. Eva: "So humans are overtaking us ?!" Grandma: "No, they certainly do not surpass us, for they have not yet learned how to preserve the environment that the Creator has given us to, do you not see how they could pollute the sea on us ?!" He was the king of the seas and her ruler. He used to live with his six daughters and his mother.
