

Community Life oEthics is a structure that regulates people's behaviors and relations with each other in social life as rules of action and values system. 1981 Lisbon Declaration of Patient Rights 1. 1981 Lisbon Declaration of Patient Rights 5. The patient has the right to accept or reject the evaluation and intervention to be applied on him / herself after receiving adequate information on planned assessments and interventions related to therapy. oEthic; plays a role in awareness, ethical sensitivity, recognition and resolution of ethical problems, as well as their emergence and preventing their emergence. Moral–Ethical oAlthough the words morals and ethics are used in the same meanings, the general appearing side concerns ethics and the private appearing side concerns morality. Medical Ethics = Hippocrates oTaking care of body cleansing oGood morality oBeing reliable oNot being a liar oNo relationship with evil oBeing right Loading... Physiotherapy and Ethics oThe person working in the field of health has to consider not only the scientific and clinical dimension but also the ethical dimension. Medical Ethics = Hippocrates oNot to behave badly oNot to get drunk oWhen called by the patient, go on time oBeing polite with the patient oKeeping secret oTo monitor the developments related to surgeries Medical Ethics = Hippocrates oNot to insult anyone and to be counselor oTo be humane and to protect patient rights oNot to be proud oNot having bad people Don't hurt me first! The right of the patient to be cared for by a physician who can freely reach clinical and moral judgments without any interference. oThe Ethos word, which was used in Greek philosophy in the early ages, corresponds to Ethics. The right of the patient to seek spiritual and moral consolation, including the assistance of a clergy devoted to an appropriate religion 6. oIts roots were laid by the Greek philosopher Socrates. oThe concept of ETHICS is now being used above local and cultural MORALS. oTransferring these rules to new generations is the main characteristic. Loading... 3.