

An area located in the northwest of Riyadh It is an area with a desert environment evident in the slopes of the Tuwaiq Mountains, with its dry, soil-free mountainous surface. It is characterized by containing a mountain that represents the edge of the world and a deep valley and desert as far as the eye can see. The visitor will be able to have a unique experience by observing the sunrise and sunset, in addition to the possibility of observing stars and meteors in complete darkness.