

The Concept Local Content Local content is a national agenda that all economic segments contribute to its development and empowerment, starting from members of society to the private sector and the public sector.