

When you click a setting, you can confirm it or update it to strengthen the security of the system.