

Dortmund are into the last 16 after getting the point they needed in a 0–0 draw at home to Manchester City side who had already qualified. City required just a point to secure top spot in Group G and they got it despite taking Erling