

Technology has positives and negatives in our lives. Technology affects our lives in various fields; Such as the intrusion of technology into the educational, health, agricultural, and other fields, which has brought about a major change in the lives of humanity. It has brought about a revolution and a qualitative shift in many fields and levels, whether scientific or practical, and the impact is noted.