

An administrative contract is a contract concluded by a public entity or on behalf of a public entity and serving a purpose of general interest. Public Procurement Contracts (Les marchés publics) A public procurement contract is an agreement between a contracting authority and a company. This contract aims to meet various needs of general interest.