

Over the years communication has completely changed it has affected education medication and social life you can send emails easily and fast rather than sending letters and it would be received after weeks teaching became easy and fun it has made life easier you can do whatever you want to do with one click