

Product Costing and Pricing: Enhanced Cost Accuracy: ABC provides a more accurate method of allocating overhead costs to products and services, leading to better product costing. Process Improvement: By understanding the activities that generate costs, companies can streamline or eliminate non-value-adding activities, improving overall efficiency.