

Saudi Arabia's Vision 2030 encompasses ambitious goals across various sectors, including tourism. The vision aims to elevate tourism infrastructure to international standards, simplify visa processes, and develop Saudi historical and heritage sites. This includes more than doubling the number of UNESCO-registered heritage sites. While the tourism sector is still developing, it shows strong potential to attract both international and local investors.