

Explain the four Challenges and risks associated with internet based e-business? Non-compliance can result in fines and legal consequences 4- competition: E-commerce business face competition from both physical stores and other online vendors. To stay competitive, they need to continuously innovate in marketing and technology