

The customer uses the PMS to make an order with one or more mobile stickers, laptop stickers, or car wrappers or he can put them in the basket. All customers register when they use the site for the first time, after which they log in using their email and password.